

Marriage Course in English

January – February 2010

Onze Lieve Vrouwekerk, Keizersgracht 218 B, Amsterdam

Marriage, like life, is a journey that involves the totality of a person. In that journey you partner with another person and pledge to share inner thoughts, become best friends and one flesh, resolve conflict when it arises and strive for happiness together. Catholic marriage is a journey of faith, in your own self, in your spouse, in the future, in the unseen God who walks with us. The Church calls marriage a vocation. Planning is required for all the things that you need for the journey and imagination to construct a spiritual road map that tells us how to get where we want to go. This is the purpose of the marriage course we now offer.
